

1

New business unit – EU exit and international trade – created by NFU to focus on Brexit and its implications for farming

4

NFU-led conferences solely focused on Brexit bringing together more than 200 industry representatives

13

Official government consultation responses submitted, plus countless informal requests and submissions

63

Farming, environmental, animal welfare and public health organisations wrote to Prime Minister under NFU leadership in January 2020 in support of government's stated commitment to ensuring standards of UK food production are not undermined after we leave the EU and develop our own independent trade policy

1,000,000

people who signed the NFU's petition to protect and maintain food standards in any post-Brexit trade deals

27

One-to-one meetings with Cabinet Ministers, plus numerous additional meetings with senior advisers and officials at No.10, Cabinet Office, the Department for Exiting the EU, Department for International Trade, Treasury and Defra

3

Face-to-face meetings with two Prime Ministers

9

Editions of the Brexit Toolbox produced for members to help their preparations for EU exit

49

Consultation meetings on the NFU's options paper in August/September 2016

8

Parliamentary Bills influenced

11

Bitesized Brexit podcasts produced to help members stay up to date with developments in the Brexit process between Nov 2018 and Feb 2019

12

Reports published, or commissioned, by the NFU around Brexit and the implications and opportunities for British farming

4

Meetings with European Commissioners and with the EU's Chief Negotiator, Michel Barnier

78,000

People who wrote to their MPs urging them to support the introduction of a Trade and Agriculture Commission.

18

NFU and AHDB Brexit Roadshows across the country to meet farmers to discuss the political and economic outlook for the industry post-Brexit in October/November 2017

60+

"Exclusive" member-only expert briefs about Brexit published online

20

Evidence submissions to Parliamentary Committee inquiries

30+

Agricultural attachés from all round the world briefed on NFU priorities.

1

Trade and Agriculture Commission created by government following intense lobbying by the NFU to help safeguard our high food and farming standards